

Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council Freedom of Information and Data Protection Policy

Introduction:

Under the Freedom of Information Act, Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council has a duty to adopt and maintain a Publication Scheme describing:

- The classes of information it publishes
- How and where such information is published (e.g. website, paper copy, etc.) and
- If a charge is made for such information

The purpose of the Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council Information Guide is to let everyone know what information will be automatically or routinely published by Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council and to ensure that a significant amount of information is available to the public, without the need for a specific request to be made. Other information is of course available from the Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council by individual request, under the Freedom of Information Act 2000 and the Data Protection Act 1998, however as many requests are for routine information, this Policy should assist the public in quickly and efficiently locating the information they require.

If there is any information required that does not appear in our Information Guide or you have any comments or suggestions on how it can be improved, please contact:

Obtaining Information

Much of the information listed in our Information Guide is supplied free of charge and can be downloaded from our website at <https://www.draycott-pc.gov.uk/> and where this is the case, the appropriate link is shown. Where information is available only in paper format, this is stated within our Scheme and can be viewed by appointment with the Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council Clerk or copies can be collected / posted (at the appropriate charge).

Information not contained within the scheme and Exemptions

Although the Freedom of Information Act creates a general right of access to information, it also sets out information that we do not have to make available for specific reasons, called exemptions. This is information that, if published, might prejudice the health, safety or security of Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council, our staff, systems, services or property.

If information is requested but is covered by an exemption, the Clerk to Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council will tell the applicant in writing why Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council has turned down the request, quoting any relevant exemptions.

If the information requested is not disclosed, the applicant can ask the Information Commissioner to review Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council's decision. The Information Commissioner's Office is the Government department that oversees and enforces FOI. They can be contacted by the following link: www.ico.gov.uk/

Data Protection

A great deal of the information that Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council holds is personal and private to Individuals. However, the Freedom of Information Act, will not make public Private and Confidential information. Under the Data Protection Act 1998, individuals have the right to see any information we hold about them. However, the right is subject to exemptions which will affect whether information is provided and requests will be dealt with by Draycott and Church Wilne Parish Council on a case by case basis.

Please send any data protection requests, providing as much detail as possible about the information required to:
